Feedback from Young People – best thing

"This was a really big event for us as young people because it allows us to engage directly with decision makers and they can hear some of the issues we face as young people when it comes to our rights. And it challenges them to take some action to help address the issues."

"Talking to the official dude about my experiences and being listened to"

"Speaking our truth"

"Having the chance to talk to the people to make changes"

"The people, room, and speeches"

"Circus people"

"Meeting other young people and Councillors and having a platform to voice my concerns"

"Learning new things"

"Giving the statements and the questions being answered by politicians....and the entertainment".

"Getting to meet and have proper conversations with politicians and people in power – really beneficial"

"The company"

Feedback from Young People – what you would change

"More time to talk individually to decision makers"

"More food at lunch"

"Hear more peoples opinions"

"More 1:1 with politicians"

"Nothing"

"More interactive, less listening"

"If the politicians actually answered the questions"

"More time for people to speak/ answers"
